Day in the Life of a Maggie's Place AmeriCorps*

Maggie's PLACE

TUESDAY: ON DUTY 9AM-4PM

9am: Unload the dishwasher, check the office voicemails, and see if any volunteers signed up to come to the house today.

10am: A mom asks you to hold her baby so she can get ready for the day. Multitask by snuggling and answering emails, then time for some tummy time!

11am: Ding dong! The Waste Not truck is here dropping off food donations. Hop on the truck to pick out some groceries for the house.

12pm: Make some lunch and chat with a mom about how her daycare tour went today.

1pm: A mom texts you that the shower isn't draining. Time to roll up your sleeves and unclog it. Each task is essential in order to keep the home functioning.

1:30pm: A new mom is moving in this week! Reset the door code, craft a welcome sign, and ensure her room is ready for her.

4pm: You aren't on duty anymore. Hand off the duty phone to your teammate and fill her in on anything she needs to know.

4:30pm-6:30pm: Contact meeting. Take the bus to the library and pick out a book. Head to the park across the street for a picnic with your contact mom and her baby!

7:00-8:30 pm: Return home and take some personal time to go on a walk and call a friend! Do your chore. Today it is sweep and mop the kitchen floor, thankfully you've got a helper!

8:30pm: Check in with your teammates to see if they need anything before you take the rest of your personal time and unwind for the night.

There is no such thing as a typical day at Maggie's Place! Some days you are constantly on the go and your schedule and service will look different than you anticipated; while other days are quieter and everything goes as expected. AmeriCorps members thrive when they embrace the ever changing needs of each day.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I apply if I'm not a US citizen?

AmeriCorps members must be US citizens or permanent legal residents.

Does Maggie's Place offer relocation assistance?

AmeriCorps members are responsible for costs associated with travel to and from their placement in Arizona. However, once you arrive in Arizona, we will pick you up from the airport and Maggie's Place provides housing, utilities and food at no cost to you.

Can I have another job while at Maggie's Place?

A year or summer of service at Maggie's Place is extremely immersive and AmeriCorps members will not have the time or flexibility needed to hold another job while serving at Maggie's Place. This also applies to any other commitment, like school or online classes.

Are there medical considerations for service?

In order to meet the demands of an immersive service experience, AmeriCorps members are expected to be able to operate well under stress, and should take into consideration mental and physical health needs or challenges when applying for service at Maggie's Place; existing conditions should be well managed in order to allow the member to thrive during their service experience. Members are expected to remain up to date on all recommended vaccinations.

Is Maggie's Place a religious organization?

Maggie's Place is not a religious organization. Maggie's Place is 501(c)3 nonprofit organization committed to serving mothers – upholding dignity, providing support for those experiencing barriers to thriving, and building an inclusive, trauma-informed community. Being founded in the spirit of Catholic social teaching, our core values of love, hospitality, community, and excellence derive from these principles. As we have grown over the years, we have remained true to our core values and mission, while proactively seeking to be a community that welcomes and integrates moms, staff and AmeriCorps members from all faith traditions and walks of life around our common purpose.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where will I live?

You will live in a house alongside moms, babies and other AmeriCorps members. We have 5 maternity homes located across Phoenix, Glendale, Mesa and Tempe. Each of our homes houses between 4-11 moms, their babies, and 2-5 AmeriCorps members.

What does the home look like?

We operate out of single family homes. Each house has its own character, but they all have corps bedrooms, mom bedrooms, a kitchen, family room, office and plenty of rocking chairs!

Where will I sleep?

AmeriCorps members share rooms and bunk beds with other AmeriCorps members. You may share a room with up to 3 other AmeriCorps members. Moms share rooms with other moms.

What about meals?

Each home has a grocery budget that is used to purchase groceries that are shared between everyone in the community on a weekly basis. There is always plenty of food accessible. If you prefer to buy your own personal food rather than share community food, you can do so with personal money. Additionally, AmeriCorps members qualify to receive EBT to aid with food costs. There are not set meal times and moms and AmeriCorps are responsible for preparing their own meals, except on Monday Community Nights!

What is Community Night?

Every Monday night the entire home spends intentional time together. Community Night includes: eating dinner, a house meeting, celebrating our wins of the week, and participating in a program or activity together.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do AmeriCorps members receive days off?

Of course! AmeriCorps members receive one 26 hour shift off from 7am-9am the following day and either another full day or 9am-4pm shift off each week. In order to provide a space for rest and self care, Maggie's Place provides a day off house (Palma) that is separate from the home where you work at to be used during your time off. Since Maggie's Place is an operational home with an AmeriCorps present 24/7, days off occur throughout the week and you will occasionally have a weekend day off, but that is not the norm.

Do I get holidays off?

Maggie's Place homes do not close for the holidays, so AmeriCorps members do not get traditional holidays off. We are often the primary support and community for the moms that live with us and we enjoy celebrating together as a community! We ask all first-year AmeriCorps to stay for Christmas, and then take time off at either Thanksgiving or Easter as well as other holidays important to the member utilizing their vacation days.

Can my family and friends visit me?

Yes! AmeriCorps often invite family and friends to visit and share in their experiences of life at Maggie's Place. While AmeriCorps members are expected to immerse themselves into the community at Maggie's Place, we also recognize that keeping in touch with family and friends is important and necessary to overall wellness.

Frequently Asked Questions

What will Maggie's Place provide?

Maggie's Place provides housing, food, health insurance, and public transport passes at no cost to you. You receive a monthly living stipend and will receive a Segal Educational Award upon completion of your service term. The Segal Education Award can be used toward past or future public educational expenses. In addition, AmeriCorps members receive ongoing training and support and retreats allowing you to grow personally and develop transferable skills for the future. A full list of benefits is available upon request.

Should I bring my own car?

If you have one, we strongly recommend bringing it for your personal use during days off or during personal time. If you do not have a car, bus passes will be provided.

How do I handle my college loans?

Forbearance or deferment is available for most federally guaranteed student loans. Contact your lender for more information. Maggie's Place is happy to provide any forms or letters required to prove your status as a full-time service member.

I have more questions! Who can I talk to?

We are happy to answer any and all questions about this unique service opportunity! Reach out at americorps@maggiesplace.org.
